

Serengeti House

SERENGETI, TANZANIA

Singita

“Rooted in the landscape, Serengeti House offers a sense of serenity, where nature flows effortlessly through every space.”

— Jo Bailes, CEO

Our purpose

Singita is a conservation-led ecotourism brand. Guided by an enduring purpose to protect and preserve large areas of African wilderness for future generations, we curate journeys and experiences across some of the continent's most expansive, untouched concessions — striving, always, to inspire a deeper sense of care for nature and for Africa itself.

THE GRUMETI FUND

The Grumeti Fund is an independent non-profit organisation. Our conservation partner in Tanzania and the custodian of 350,000 acres of wilderness along the western corridor of the Serengeti, where Singita Grumeti is located, its team works tirelessly in the pursuit of a world in which people and wildlife coexist sustainably, forever.

Serengeti House

As sunrise filters through wide east-facing windows, it warms the soft beiges and pale woods of Serengeti House, gently awakening it. This African home isn't set on the land, but within it — deeply grounded, as though held by the grasses and hillside itself. A waterhole lies before you, drawing wildlife close, reminding you how naturally you belong here. By afternoon, light softens as the sun slips behind you, inviting stillness and reflection. The peace of the wild flows through every space, guiding you outward, onto decks, to the pool and tennis court, to move, always in step with the land.

Hear the landscape
come alive.

Our location

SINGITA GRUMETI (A)

A seemingly endless expanse of teeming plains, riverine forests, thorny scrubland, and rising hills, this concession forms part of the Serengeti-Mara ecosystem. Rich in heritage and biodiversity, it's home to the annual Great Migration, along with an abundance of other endemic and migratory wildlife throughout the year.

SERENGETI HOUSE (B)

Set within the plains, Serengeti House is homely, relaxed, and deeply connected to its surroundings. Soft interiors and open spaces create a sense of calm, while the surrounding wilderness brings a feeling of life and movement. It's a place to slow down, spend time outdoors, and feel part of the landscape.
