

Mara River Camp

SERENGETI, TANZANIA

Singita

“On the banks of the Mara River, life unfolds between canvas and wilderness, where the spirit of Maasai culture meets the untamed beauty of the Serengeti.”

— Jo Bailes, CEO

Our purpose

Singita is a conservation-led ecotourism brand. Guided by an enduring purpose to protect and preserve large areas of African wilderness for future generations, we curate journeys and experiences across some of the continent's most expansive, untouched concessions — striving, always, to inspire a deeper sense of care for nature and for Africa itself.

THE GRUMETI FUND

The Grumeti Fund is an independent non-profit organisation. Our conservation partner in Tanzania and the custodian of 350,000 acres of wilderness along the western corridor of the Serengeti, where Singita's properties here are located, its team works tirelessly in the pursuit of a world in which people and wildlife coexist sustainably, forever.

Mara River Camp

As the morning heat rises, the wilderness stirs, waking you with it. Mara River Camp sits on a remote riverbend, free yet grounded in the scent of earth and wood, the richness of Maasai colours and culture woven throughout. There's something inherently intrepid about being here, where only canvas stands between you and the wild. In season, millions of thundering hooves pass nearby, visible from every space. In quieter months, the river flows gently, and a sense of peace pervades. Dine outdoors beneath tree-dappled light, warm yourself around a fire, and venture out to uncover what each day here reveals.
